

Essbase Advanced workshops for Administrators and Developers

The Essbase Advanced Workshops are designed to provide you with the skills to effectively utilise advanced functionality within Essbase. M2bis also provide a service in which the duration, style and content of these workshop courses are tailored at your request.

Audience

Experienced application developers or administrators who wish to learn advanced aspects of building Essbase applications.

Pre-requisites

Knowledge of Microsoft Windows and practical experience of Essbase development.

Duration

To be confirmed.

Suggested topics to cover will include, but are not limited to;

- Optimisation using Block Storage
- Building using Aggregate Storage
- Using MDX with Aggregate Storage applications
- Optimisation using Aggregate Storage
- Essbase Currency Conversion Module
- Partitioning Databases
- Using Attribute Dimensions

